GO(ing) BOWLING

The Wolfpack's invitation to play in the Go Bowling Military Bowl marks the fifth straight bowl qualification for NC State and the 10th in the past 11 seasons.

That is tied as the second-best mark in the ACC in that time frame (Clemson has qualified for bowls in 11 straight years and Miami is tied with the Pack for bowl bids in 10 of the past 11 years).

NC State head coach Dave Doeren has led NC State to more bowl games than any coach in school history and in his 14 total seasons as a head coach (including two at Northern Illinois), has qualified for 12 bowls.

NOT THE FIRST TIME

Although it might seem weird that NC State's opponent in the Go Bowling Military Bowl is located just 83 miles down highway 264 from Raleigh, there are many "not the firsts" surrounding the game.

It's not the first time they've played. In fact, the two teams have met 32 times in a series that dates back to 1970. NC State posts a 19-13 overall advantage.

And actually, it's not the first time the two teams have met in a bowl game either. The Pirates defeated the Pack 37-34 in the 1992 Peach Bowl in Atlanta.

The Wolfpack's last opponent of 2024 will be its first opponent of 2025, as NC State's opener next season will be in Raleigh against the Pirates. But ... it's (sort of) not the first time for that either! In 2018, the Pack's game against West Virginia and ECU's road game at Virginia Tech scheduled for Sept. 15 were canceled due to Hurricane Florence, so to make up the lost games, the two teams met in Raleigh on Dec. 1. (NC State went on to play in a bowl game that season). In 2019, the two squads opened with a game in Raleigh.

RETURN VISIT

This will mark the second time that NC State has played in Navy-Marine Corps Memorial Stadium on the campus of the U.S. Naval Academy. In 2002, the Wolfpack played at Navy, defeating the Midshipmen, 65-19.

* The Wolfpack qualified for the 2021 SDCCU Holiday Bowl, but its opponent backed out on game day.

Quarterback Philip Rivers threw TD passes to four different receivers in that contest, but the defense was led by a sophomore linebacker, Freddie Aughtry-Lindsay, who tallied eight stops on the day. Now, two decades later, Aughtry-Lindsay will serve as NC State's defensive coordinator on that same field. (NC State's head of strength and conditioning Dantonio Burnette also played that day - tallying five stops).

NC State also played road games at Navy in 1912, 1919, 1920 and 1921, but the current stadium was not built then.

MORE PACK vs. PIRATES

NC State has won the last three meetings between the two teams: in Greenville (22-21) in 2022, and twice in Raleigh (34-6 in 2019 and 58-3 in 2018). In the last meeting, the Pack eked out a 21-20 victory in Greenville (9/3/22), as the Pirates missed a 41-yard field goal with five seconds remaining.

Dave Doeren is 3-2 all-time vs. ECU, winning each of the last three. However, ECU handed the Wolfpack one of only two home non-conference losses in the Dave Doeren era - 42-28 - in Raleigh on Nov. 23, 2013 (Doeren's first season). The other was a loss to No. 10 Notre Dame in 2023.

The two teams met every season from 1970-1987, but since then have played just 14 times, with three of those contests being played at neutral sites. In 1996 and 2004, the two teams played regular-season contests in Charlotte, with ECU winning 50-29 in '96 and the Pack gaining a 52-14 victory in 2004.

Although ECU has played NC State at Carter-Finley 22 times, the Pirates faced another opponent on the Wolfpack's home field as well. In 1999, Hurricane Floyd flooded the eastern part of the state, forcing the Pirates out of Dowdy Ficklen Stadium. NC State offered to let the Pirates host the ninth-ranked (and appropriately named) Miami Hurricanes, and ECU went on to upset Miami, 27-23. The excitement led visiting ECU fans to tear down the goalposts.

LEADER OF THE PACK

On Nov. 4, 2023, Dave Doeren became the winningest coach in Wolfpack Football history with a win over Miami. Now completing his 12th season at NC State, Doeren boasts 87 victories as the Leader of the Pack.

In Doeren's 12 campaigns at NC State, his teams have had seven 8+ win seasons, four nine-win seasons and qualified for 10 bowl games. Since the beginning of the 2020 season, his Wolfpack has posted more ACC victories than any other ACC school except Clemson.

Five of his players have won seven national awards and three have been first-round draft picks and NC State posted what tied as the longest home winning streak in school history (16 wins between 2020-22).

PIRATE --> PACK

NC State special assistant to the head coach Ruffin McNeil is not only beloved by Wolfpack Nation, but he has some pretty strong ties to the Pirates as well.

McNeill, who joined the Wolfpack staff prior to the 2020 season, is a 1980 ECU graduate, a member of the Pirates' Athletic Hall of Fame, and a former ECU head coach.

He played under head coach Pat Dye. As a sophomore defensive back In 1977, he started his first game in the season opener against NC State in Carter-Finley Stadium. With ECU up 28-23 as time ran out, McNeill made a tackle on the Pirates' two-yardline to prevent the Wolfpack win.

"Coach Ruff" went back to his alma mater as head coach in 2010 and served as head coach through the 2015 campaign. In 2013, McNeill's Pirates posted the second-most wins in school history, going 10-3 including a win over Ohio University in the 2013 Beef 'O' Brady's Bowl. The season also included wins over in-state rivals North Carolina and (unfortunately) NC State.

Following his tenure at ECU, McNeill was on the staff at Virginia (2016) and then went to Oklahoma, where he was assistant head coach and defensive tackle coach in 2017 and held those positions and served as interim defensive coordinator in 2018. In 2019, he coached the Sooner OLBs but after that season, left the program to move back to North Carolina to take care of his ailing father.

McNeill and Wolfpack head coach Dave Doeren have known each other since Doeren's days as a graduate assistant at USC, while McNeill was at Fresno State. The two kept up and coached against each other through the years and when the announcement that McNeill was leaving Oklahoma was public, his first call was from Doeren.

He joined the Wolfpack staff in 2020, he became part of the Wolfpack family and has served as a vital resource for coaches, players and staff.

OFFENSIVE UPTURN

NC State's offense has dramatically improved its numbers in the last third of the season. In the last four games, the Wolfpack is averaging 115 more rushing yards, 62 more yards of total offense and 9.5 more points per game than in the first eight games of 2024.

The Wolfpack rushed for over 220 yards in three of the last four games, including in back-to-back contests vs. Georgia Tech (253) and UNC (220). It marked the first time since 2018 that NC State rushed for 200+ yards in back to back games and the first time since 2015 that the feat was accomplished in back-to-back league games.

The Pack's rushing output in the one-point loss to Georgia Tech was its second-best of the season (29-253), but the Pack's 8.72 yards per rush ranked as the fifth-best average by an ACC team in a league game in the past five years and the second-best since 2021 (according to ESPN). It was the highest average in a loss for an ACC team since 2017 (Pitt vs. Navy).

And when the Pack hung 59 points on Stanford, it marked NC State's highest scoring output ever vs. an ACC opponent.

Here's a look at the Pack's offensive improvement in the last four games.

NC State	Rushing	Total Offense	Scoring
First 8 games	94.5	349.5	26.0
Last 4 games	209.5	411.8	35.5
Diff.	+115	+62.3	+9.5

FABULOUS FRESHMAN

Freshman quarterback CJ Bailey has put up some of the best numbers in school history for a freshman and with at least one game left to play is working his way up the single-season lists at NC State.

He enters the bowl game with the eighth best single-season completion percentage in school history at .641 - the best mark ever for a freshman. He hit 18-20 of his throws in the win over Stanford - an incredible 90%! That's the fifth-best single-game mark in the FBS this season.

His 2,183 passing yards in 2024 is the No. 20 mark in school history for a single season and trails only Philip Rivers (2000) for the best output by a Wolfpack freshman. Even though he's started just eight games, he ranks eighth among FBS freshmen in passing yards, second among true freshmen.

In terms of touchdown passes, Bailey's 14 ranks tied for 21st in school history and third for a freshman (behind Rivers and Russell Wilson).

Bailey's career got off to a faster start than he expected when he enrolled at NC State in January of 2024. When he started the Clemson game for an injured Grayson McCall on Sept. 21, he was just the third true freshman quarterback to start a game for the Pack since the turn of the century, joining Rivers in 2000 and MJ Morris in 2022. He's only the fifth true freshman in school history to earn the starting nod.

Here's a look at the frosh's numbers in 2024:

Category	Single Season		Single Season
	Mark	Freshman	Overall
Passing Yards	2183	3rd	20th
Pass Completions	177	2nd	21st
Passing Attempts	276	3rd	26th
Pass TDs	14	3rd	T21st
Completion %	.641	1st	8th
Efficiency	140.8	1st	8th

ACC-OMPLISHMENT

Since the beginning of the 2020 season, NC State ranks second in the ACC in ACC victories. The Wolfpack has posted a 26-16 mark in league play over the past five seasons, second only to Clemson's 33-8 mark.

Here's a look at the league records since 2020:

School	ACC Record Since 2020
Clemson	33-8
NC State	26-16
Miami	24-17
UNC	23-19
Louisville	23-19
Pitt	22-20
Florida St.	20-20
Virginia Tech	19-22
Georgia Tech	19-24
Wake Forest	16-23
Boston College	16-26
Duke	15-27
Virginia	14-26
Syracuse	14-28

Cal, SMU and Stanford not included since 2024 is their first year in the league, however results against those teams are included.

CLOSE CALLS

NC State's record in 2024 may not have been what was hoped for when the season began, but the W-L mark does not show just how close some of the Wolfpack's losses have been.

Five of the Pack's eight ACC contests this season (and six games overall) have been decided by one score, including a heartbreaking one-point loss at Georgia Tech and a one-point win at Cal.

NC State has posted a 3-3 record in one-score games this season (including the win over Northern Illinois).

In Dave Doeren's 12 seasons, the Pack has now played 44 one-score games.

FURIOUS FINISHES

NC State has definitely not been strong out of the gates this season, but the Wolfpack has definitely come on strong at the finish of games.

Opponents have doubled up on the Wolfpack in the first quarter in terms of scoring this year, outscoring NC State 102-51.

The fourth quarter has been a different story, as the Pack holds a 141-79 scoring advantage in the final frame.

In the last two games, the Pack has scored 44 combined fourth quarter points.

The last time NC State had back to back games with 20-point fourth quarters in ACC play was 1986, when not a single player on the Wolfpack team was born and some of their parents might not have been!

FORCE TO BE RECKONED WITH

Senior defensive end Davin Vann leads the entire FBS with six forced fumbles this season. That ties as highest tally in school history and the most for a Wolfpack player since 2001. He has eight forced fumbles for his career, tied for third in school history.

Vann has mastered the art of the strip sack this season. In the win over Northern Illinois, he sacked the Husky QB for a 20-yard loss, knocking out the ball that was recovered at the NIU one. That led to the KC Concepcion touchdown that would end up being the difference in the game. He also caused a second fumble in that contest.

But his disruptive ways aren't limited to causing fumbles. Vann was also the catalyst behind the Wolfpack's touchdowns on interception returns versus Tennessee and LaTech. On both picks, Vann fought through traffic, hitting the arm of Tennessee's Nico Iamaleava and the ball as LaTech's Jack Turner released it.

The Cary, N.C. native had another strip sack vs. Stanford, giving the Pack the ball on the Cardinal 32 and leading to his team's second score of the game.

Vann left the Georgia Tech game with an injury after playing only 17 snaps, but was back in action in the regular season finale vs. UNC. His strip sack (nine yard loss) in that contest gave the Pack the ball at the UNC 11 and led to his squad's first TD of the night one play later.

ADDING A LIMB

The Dave Doeren head coaching tree added another limb following the 2024 regular season, when Tony Gibson, who has served as defensive coordinator for the past five seasons, was named the head coach at Marshall.

Gibson became the fourth coach who has worked under Doeren at NC State to become a current head coach, joining Mike Uremovich (Ball State), Eliah Drinkwitz (Missouri), and Tim Beck (Coastal Carolina). Rod Carey, who was an assistant under Doeren at Northern Illinois in 2011 and 2012, would go on to be named the Huskies head coach, a position he held from 2013-18.

Here's a look at Doeren's former assistants who have gone on to become head coaches

Name	Years		Years at

AT A LOSS

NC State ranks 24th nationally in tackles for loss this season with an average of 6.8 per game. Led by Davin Vann's 14 stops behind the line of scrimmage, the Wolfpack has made 81 tackles for a loss this season.

RALEIGH RAILROADS

NC State's offensive line is one of the main factors behind the offense's resurgence in the last four games. In addition to the yardage the offense has turned in, that is evident in other stats as well.

When offensive line coach Garret Tujague joined the staff in 2023, he brought a new stat to his unit. In addition to charting knockdowns and pancakes for the o-line, Tujague also keeps track of "Raleigh Railroads."

A RR is an extended, sustained block - basically when the lineman pushes the defender back like a freight train.

In the regular season finale vs. UNC, the train DEFINITELY left the station! The five starters on the o-line tallied 39 Raleigh Railroads - most for the Pack under Tujague. Four starters boasted career highs in RRs: Anthony Carter (8), Zeke Correll (6), Tim McKay (8), Jacarius Peak (9).

TURNOVER TURMOIL

Turnovers have definitely been the Wolfpack's Achilles Heel in 2024, as NC State currently ranks tied for seventh in the FBS for most turnovers lost (23). And even worse, those turnovers have resulted in points that have meant the difference in close games.

ACC opponents have scored 83 points on turnovers vs. the Pack this season.

Opponent	Total TOs	Opp. Result	Opp. Pts off TO	Final Score Margin
UNC	1 (1 INT)	--	--	+5

SIX FOR SIXTEEN(s)

When quarterback CJ Bailey rushed for three touchdowns in the loss at Georgia Tech, it marked the first time since 2010 that a Wolfpack QB had carried the ball across the goalline three times in a game.

That year, another No. 16 - Russell Wilson - also had three in a 28-24 win over No. 16 Florida State in 2010. (In other words, Bailey was four years old the last time a Wolfpack QB rushed for as many TDs!)

No quarterback in school history has ever rushed for more TDs than

THIRD DOWN AND OUT

The Wolfpack defense has been especially stingy on third down in the last five games, with Cal, Stanford, Duke, Georgia Tech and UNC combining to convert just .224 on third down (13-58). In the loss to Duke, the Blue Devils did not convert a third down in nine tries.

For the season, the Wolfpack ranks 31st in the FBS in 3rd down conversion defense with a .340 (53-156) mark. That's an impressive number, since in the first seven games of the season, the Pack allowed the opponent to convert at a .408 rate (40-98)!

NO RETURNS

NC State is tied for eighth in the nation in kickoff returns allowed, allowing just nine this season (with the first coming in Game 8).

Collin Smith has kicked off 73 times this season, booting all but 10 into the endzone for a touchback. His first non-touchback was in game 7 vs. Syracuse and was a fair catch. (Unfortunately, the first kick of the year that was actually returned was brought back 40 yards by Nohl Williams of Cal).

Prior to the fair catch vs. Syracuse, Smith had booted 42 straight into the endzone dating back to last year's regular season finale.

MANY HAPPY RETURNS

On the flip side, the Wolfpack ranks third in the FBS in kickoff returns with a 28.1 average.

DK Kaufman would lead the nation with his 33.5 ypr average if he had enough attempts to qualify (he didn't return a kick until game 5). That mark is the third-best single season mark in school history.

PACK BACKERS

NC State's bowl coaching roster for the Go Bowling Military Bowl will feature not one, not two, but THREE former Wolfpack linebackers on it.

Dantonio Burnette, who has served as Wolfpack football's director of strength and conditioning since 2016, played linebacker under Chuck Amato from 1999-2002. Freddie Aughtry-Lindsay, who has coached the Wolfpack nickels since 2020, will continue to coach that position and serve as defensive coordinator for the bowl game, following DC Tony Gibson's exit to become the head coach at Marshall.

And finally Isaiah Moore, who played under Dave Doeren from 2018-22, will coach the linebackers for the bowl game.

TRIPLE THREAT

NC State's recent rushing resurgence shouldn't be a surprise, as the Wolfpack has three talented running backs who all see significant time. The Wolfpack is just one of two ACC teams that boasts three players with 400+ rushing yards for the season.

And all three have have statistics that look remarkably similar.

WATERS RUNNING

When you check out the longest plays in the FBS this season, Wolfpack running back Jordan Waters sits at the top of the list for the longest rush.

In the Wolfpack's Nov. 2 59-28 win over Stanford, the graduate burst through the line for a 94-yard rushing touchdown. That is the longest rush in the FBS this season and the second-longest in school history. Only Ted Brown had a longer run for the Wolfpack - a 95 yards in 1977 - 47 years ago!

The Duke transfer ended the game with 115 rushing yards for his second 100+ game of the season. He was well rested, as he missed the game at Cal with a flu bug.

The Pack's leading rusher for the season, Waters now boasts 2,069 yards for his career (Duke + NC State).

MR. RETURN

Safety DK Kaufman has been the epitome of the return man for the Wolfpack this season as returning the ball in the opposite direction has been his specialty.

Kaufman is the first Wolfpack defender since 2003 to score on an interception return and a fumble return in the same season. He also has what would be the best kickoff return average in school history if the season ended today (33.5 ypr).

Kaufman netted 164 yards in kickoff returns vs. Stanford - the fifth-highest tally in the FBS this season and the ninth-best mark in school history. He had one 91 yard return in that contest. His 33.5 yards per return would lead the nation if he had enough attempts to qualify.

The transfer from Auburn had a pick six in the win over LaTech - racing 33 yards for a score.

On Sept. 28 vs. NIU, he sacked the Huskie quarterback for a 14-yard loss, causing him to fumble, then picked it up and ran it into the end zone.

You don't have to look far to find the last player who accomplished the feat of scoring on a fumble return and interception return in the same season - he's actually standing on the Wolfpack sideline. Nickels coach and former Wolfpack linebacker Freddie Aughtry-Lindsay didn't just score both ways in a single season, he did it in the same game! Aughtry-Lindsay scored 12 of the Pack's 31 points in the win over UConn that season.

DIALING LONG DISTANCE

When CJ Bailey hit Noah Rogers for a 75-yard touchdown vs. Syracuse, it was the longest pass play for the Wolfpack since Devin Leary also had a 75-yarder in 2022 (and a 79-yard completion in 2021).

But not only did Bailey have that 70+ yard throw, he also connected with Hollywood Smothers for a 72-yard completion.

No other NC State quarterback has had two 70+ yard completions in one game in at least the past 30 years (we've gone back to 1994 and still looking!). No Wolfpack QB has had two in the same SEASON since 2017 (Ryan Finley)!

TD(efense)

The Wolfpack defense has had its ups and downs this season, but one way it has excelled has been taking the ball back to the opponents' end zone.

NC State scored three defensive touchdowns in 2024. That's the most defensive scores for the Wolfpack since the 2011 season and is tied for third in a season since the rules changed in 1989 allowed the defense to return fumbles (36 seasons). The Pack is tied for ninth in the FBS in defensive TDs this season.

The Pack has had two pick sixes this season - one by DK Kaufman vs. LaTech and one by Aydan White vs. Tennessee. Kaufman also had a fumble return for a score vs. Northern Illinois.

Here's a look at the Pack's top defensive TD seasons since 1989:

Year	Gms	INT	FUM	Tot
2003	13	2	4	6
2011	13	3	2	5
2024	12	2	1	3
2002	14	0	3	3
2001	12	1	2	3
1998	12	0	3	3
1992	13	2	1	3
1991	12	2	1	3

THE "AND" MATTERS

The Wolfpack offense has struggled on third down this season, ranking 97th in the FBS with a 53-143 conversion mark.

However, the difference is in the "and" - as in third-AND-short vs. third-AND-long. NC State's issues on third down have come from an inability to gain yardage on first and second down.

When the down and distance is 3rd and 5 or less, the Pack has converted at a 55% clip (33-59). On third and 6+, the Pack is 20-84 (23%).

JOLY MOLY

Tight end Justin Joly led the Wolfpack in receiving yards with 620 in the regular season. That's the fourth best single-season mark for a player at his position in school history.

In terms of catches, the transfers 40 grabs ranked second on the Pack this season and is tied as the fifth-highest for a TE in school history.

Joly became more and more of a weapon for the Wolfpack offense as the season progressed. In the last seven games, he hauled in 27 catches for 380 yards and three touchdowns.

The transfer from UConn is averaging 15.5 yards per catch for the season - that's the fourth-best mark in the FBS this season among tight ends.

PICK SIX(ES)

The Wolfpack defense had a pick six in games two and three and is tied for 10th in the FBS in interception returns for TDs in 2024.

In the Duke's Mayo Classic vs. Tennessee, CB Aydan White returned a pick for 87 yards and a score, the sixth-longest INT return in school history. The following week in the win over Louisiana Tech, safety DK Kaufman housed an interception for 33 yards and a score.

It marked the first time since the 2017 season that the Pack has had two interception returns for scores in a season (and this year it was done twice in the first five games). NC State hasn't had more than two pick sixes in a season since the 2011 season, when David Amerson (who set the then-ACC record with 13 INTs that season) had a pair and CJ Wilson had one.

MARGIN CALLS

Winning the turnover battle is a must for NC State and we've got the stats to prove it!

In the past five seasons (2020-24), the Wolfpack posts a 24-1 record when winning the turnover margin and is 3-14 when committing more miscues than the opponent.

The Pack has won each of its last 13 games when winning the TO margin. The Wolfpack's win over Cal marked the first time since 2022 that NC State won a game when it lost the turnover margin.

DOEREN'S DOZEN

NC State head coach Dave Doeren is now in his 12th season at the helm of Wolfpack football - the second-longest tenure in school history. It's the second-longest current tenure in the ACC (behind the Tigers' Dabo Swinney) and a mark that is tied for sixth among current FBS coaches.

Here's a look at the longest tenured coaches in the FBS:

Rk.	Name, School	Year
1.	Kirk Ferentz, Iowa	25th
2.	Kyle Whittingham, Utah	20th
	Mike Gundy, Oklahoma St.	20th
4.	Troy Calhoun, Air Force	18th
5.	Dabo Swinney, Clemson	17th
6.	Dave Doeren, NC State	12th

SELLING OUT

The Wolfpack's last home game vs. Duke marked the 20th consecutive sellout for NC State Football - the longest sellout streak in school history. The streak dates back to Sept. 17, 2022 vs. Texas Tech.

It marks the first time in school history that the Pack has sold out of single-game tickets in consecutive seasons. Season tickets have also sold out each of the past two years (and seven times under head coach Dave Doeren).

PAT DOWN

When the Wolfpack botched an extra point attempt in the fourth quarter of the win at UNC to close the regular season, it had been 2,563 days since NC State's last PAT miss.

Before the botched kick, NC State boasted the nation's longest streak of consecutive PATs made with 287. The Wolfpack hadn't missed an extra point since the second to last game of the 2017 season (Nov. 25, 2017) - a streak of 87 games.

FAMILY TRADITION

When quarterback Lex Thomas entered the game in the fourth quarter at Clemson, it didn't just mark the first action of his collegiate career, it was the continuation of a family legacy.

Lex is the third member of the Thomas family to play for the Wolfpack, following in the footsteps of his older brothers Thayer and Drake.

Thayer played wide receiver from 2018-22, tallying 215 career receptions - the second-highest total in school history. He is now on the practice squad for the Minnesota Vikings.

Drake, a first-team All-ACC performer at linebacker, played from 2019-22 and was the Pack's leading tackler twice in his career. He now plays for the Seattle Seahawks.

Lex redshirted last season and his 14 snaps versus Clemson were the first of his career. He is the second Thomas brother to throw for a touchdown, as Thayer threw for four in his career. Lex's first collegiate TD throw was a 40-yarder to Terrell Anderson. Thayer also had 24 receiving TDs.

Drake scored a touchdown of his own during his Wolfpack career, reaching the end zone on a 38-yard pick six vs. Syracuse in 2021.

PICKY PACK

In the past three+ seasons, NC State ranks third among all P4 schools in passes intercepted. NC State has tallied 59 interceptions in the 2021, '22, '23 and '24 seasons combined, trailing only Iowa for most in the nation.

The Pack led the ACC in picks each of the past three years, with 17 in 2023 (fourth in FBS), 19 in 2022 (t3rd in FBS) and 15 in 2021 (t14th in FBS).

Here's a look at the P4 Leaders in INTs over the past three+ seasons:

Rk	School	'21	'22	'23	'24	Tot

GOING THE DISTANCE

When quarterback Grayson McCall went down with an injury earlier this season, 2024 became the fifth time in the past six seasons that the Wolfpack has had to start multiple quarterbacks in a season.

WHITE PARTY

Corner Aydan White's 87-yard pick six vs. Tennessee was the second interception return for a score in his career. It also marked the sixth-longest INT return in school history.

White now has two of the top eight longest interception returns in school history, as he also had an 84-yarder against Texas Tech in 2022.

No other Wolfpack player has had more career scores on INT returns since David Amerson had three between 2011-12. (Amerson set an ACC record for picks during his career). CJ Wilson (09-12) and Marcus Hudson (01-05) also had three.

Now with nine career INTs, the three-year starter is a veteran of 54 career games (38 career starts).

SIX MILES

To say that Wolfpack quarterback Grayson McCall put up some big numbers in his career would be putting it mildly. McCall, who transferred to NC State from Coastal Carolina in January, passed for 10,481 yards in 45 career games - a distance of almost six miles!

That career mark for passing yards was the fourth-highest for any QB in the nation heading into the 2024 season.

McCall was named to the preseason watch lists for the Maxwell, Davey O'Brien, Unitas and Walter Camp Awards before his season ended prematurely with an injury.

AGAINST US, NOW FOR US

Four players on the Wolfpack offense who played their first game for the Wolfpack against Western Carolina had all played against NC State previously in their careers.

Running back Jordan Waters, center Zeke Correll, tight end Justin Joly and wide receiver Wesley Grimes are in the first year at NC State, but all played against the Wolfpack at their previous schools.

Waters started for Duke against the Wolfpack in Durham last season, rushing for 123 yards on 13 carries and a touchdown in that Blue Devil win. He also saw limited action when NC State defeated Duke in Raleigh in 2020.

Correll started for Notre Dame in a lightning-delayed game at Carter-Finley last season, helping the Fighting Irish rush for 170 yards in their 45-24 victory.

Joly was UConn's leading receiver in the Pack's win on the road last season, hauling in four catches for 38 yards. He also had a catch in Carter-Finley in the 2022 matchup between the two teams.

A former Wake Forest Demon Deacon, Grimes had one catch against the Pack in Winston-Salem last season, gaining nine yards in that NC State victory.

OLD-FENSIVE LINE

Glance down the Wolfpack depth chart at the offensive line and you'll see two letters pretty often: GR.

Seven players listed on the two-deep at the five o-line spots are graduates, including four who started the first four games: Anthony Belton (LT), Anthony Carter, Jr., (LG), Zeke Correll (C), and Tim McKay (RT).

Backups Matt McCabe and Patrick Matan also have already earned degrees.

The starters on the Wolfpack's offensive line have combined to play 201 career games, starting 152 (that includes Correll's 41 games and 31 starts at Notre Dame).

RECOVERY MAN

Sean Brown long ago earned a reputation as one of the hardest hitters on the Wolfpack defense. This season, he's aquired another skill.

As a starting free safety in 11 games in 2023, the graduate ranked third on the team in tackles and led all players returning in 2024. For 2024, he brought his skills to the WLB spot, filling the spot vacated by 2023 Butkus and Bednarik winner Payton Wilson (now with the Pittsburgh Steelers).

Brown, who was named a semifinalist for the Butkus, is the team's leading tackler with 87 stops. He also has recovered three fumbles this season - a mark that leads the ACC and is tied for fifth in the FBS.

AWARD WINNERS

Head coach Dave Doeren has now coached five different Wolfpack players to seven different national awards.

2017	Bradley Chubb, DE	Nagurski Trophy Hendricks Award
2018	Garrett Bradbury, C	Rimington Trophy
2022	Christopher Dunn, PK	Groza Award
2023	Payton Wilson, LB	Bednarik Award Butkus Award
	Joe Shimko, LS	Mannely Award

MAKING THE GRADE

The Wolfpack football program has not only enjoyed success on the playing field, but in the classroom as well.

The Wolfpack posted the highest cumulative team GPA in program history last year, as well as the highest multi-year academic progress rate (APR) ever.

Six players will earn degrees in December grad ceremonies, including one who will earn his MBA: kicker Collin Smith.

RALEIGH = TITLETOWN

NC State Athletics is coming off one of the most successful years in school history!

The Wolfpack was the only school in the nation to finish 2023-24 with all four major sports finishing in the top 25 nationally and was one of only three programs ever to have its men's and women's basketball teams advance to the Final Four and its baseball team make it to the College World Series.

NC State won five ACC team titles in 2023-24, and since the 2019-20 year, has won 20 league championships - 4.5 more than any other league school during that time frame.

GIVE A DAWG A BONE

In 2020, the Wolfpack defensive staff introduced the TAKEAWAY BONE.

When a Wolfpack defender recovers a fumble or intercepts a pass, the BONE comes out on the sideline. The player who got the take-away signs it and at the end of the season, whoever has signed it the most times gets to keep the bone.

Now in its fifth season, the TAKEAWAY BONE has come out 90 times - for 64 interceptions and 26 fumble recoveries.

NUMBER ONE

Since 2014, NC State head coach Dave Doeren has honored a member of the Wolfpack squad by giving them the No. 1 jersey. Prior to the 2023 season, he awarded that number to defensive end Davin Vann.

The jersey number is awarded to a player who exhibits an elite work ethic and practice and training habits, while also leading his teammates. "This player doesn't just uphold the standards," said head coach Dave Doeren. "He pushes them higher."

NON-CON DOMINANCE

Just a note on the Wolfpack's non-conference slate: NC State has posted a 31-2 record in home non-conference games under head coach Dave Doeren.

The Wolfpack has won 28 of last 29 non-ACC home games, with last year's loss to 10th-ranked Notre Dame marking the first non-conference loss in 10 years (since ECU in 2013 - Doeren's first year in Raleigh).

WOLFPACK TRADITIONS

Lighting It Red: After ACC wins in football, the Memorial Belltower on campus is lit RED to celebrate. It's a unique celebration that is often imitated, but never duplicated.

The Wolf Sign: Touch your ring finger and middle finger to your thumb and raise your pinkie and pointer fingers. You've made the sign of the Wolf!

Law of the Jungle: After wins, when Coach Doeren calls the team up in the postgame locker room, the entire team chants a verse from Rudyard Kipling's poem Law of the Jungle.

*Now this is the Law of the Jungle – as old and as true as the sky;
And the Wolf that shall keep it may prosper, but the Wolf that shall break it must die.
As the creeper that girdles the tree-trunk the Law runneth forward and back –
For the strength of the Pack is the Wolf, and the strength of the Wolf is the Pack.*

Alpha Wolf Starter: Before every home game, a fan favorite serves as the 'starter of the game.' This could be a former player, famous alum or just somebody special to Wolfpack nation. The starter gets the crowd going in a chant of "WOLF!" "PACK!" prior to the team's entrance.

Walk of Champions: A couple of hours before kickoff, NC State's team buses arrive at the stadium on Trinity Rd, in front of the Murphy Football Center. The team walks down the steps through the cheerleaders, band and Wolfpack Nation before entering the building on the far side and heading to the locker room.

El Lobo: Leading the band onto the field (and the team down Trinity Rd. before the Walk of Champions) is the helmet cart, also known as "El Lobo."

Equipped with it's own sound system and smoking 'tailpipes', the cart was originally given by a donor in the late 70s, then restored a couple of decades ago.

The cart brings the Pack's beloved mascots (see next note) onto the field.

Mr. and Ms. WUF: NC State's Mr. WUF mascot has been around since the 60s, and he was joined by a female version in 1975. On Feb. 28, 1981, the two were married in a mock ceremony by the Wake Forest Demon Deacon mascot during halftime of a men's Basketball game at Reynolds Coliseum. The two were joined in "canis matrimonium," and Chancellor Joab Thomas gave the bride away.

Tuffy III: A dog named Tuffy became the new live mascot for football games in 2010. Tuffy was a Tamaskan - a breed of dog that resembles a wolf. Tuffy II took over in 2016, followed by Tuffy III in 2021.

Wagon Wheel: The song "Wagon Wheel" has long been a Wolfpack favorite due to its lyrics about our state and city.

However, in the past several years, it's become a tradition to play the song between the 3rd and 4th quarter and for Wolfpack Nation to sing it together:

*Headin' down south to the land of the pines
I'm thumbin' my way into North Carolina
Starin' up the road and pray to God I see headlights
I made it down the coast in seventeen hours
Pickin' me a bouquet of dogwood flowers
And I'm a-hopin' for Raleigh, I can see my baby tonight*

ONEPACK EMPOWERED

A generous gift from Dave and Sara Doeren established a new initiative at NC State in 2023-24 to support students with executive functioning challenges and those who are neurodivergent. Their $1.25 million commitment is among the largest made by a college football coach to his NCAA-member institution.

Launched through the Doeren Family Fund, OnePack Empowered benefits NC State students who face challenges with executive function skills critical to academic success, such as organization, planning, setting priorities, task completion and decision making.

The program had 15 participants in the spring semester, will have 30 this fall and 50 in the spring of 2025.

With a focus on one-on-one mentoring, individual support plans, career readiness and additional specialized assistance, the program was designed to bolster academic and personal success and ensure students can complete their degrees.

The Doerens' commitment will pilot the program for five years, and the hope to inspire other donors to join them in contributing to OnePack Empowered as a sustainable source of support and guidance for an expanding number of participants over the next several years.

I PACK I GOAL

ONEPACK EMPOWERED

Supports and empowers students with executive functioning challenges and those who are neurodivergent.

The OnePack Empowered program is made possible thanks to a $1.25M gift from Dave and Sara Doeren.

16 CJ BAILEY

QB | 6'6 | 190 | Fr.

Miami, Fla. (Chaminade Madonna)

- Ranks eight among FBS freshmen in passing yards with 2,183 (even though he has only started eight games). He ranks second nationally among true freshmen.
- Yardage is the No. 20 mark in school history for a single season, and the second-best mark ever by a freshman. Philip Rivers had 3,054 as a freshman in 2000 while starting 12 games.
- Has 14 TD throws - tied for 21st in school history and third for a freshman (behind Rivers and Russell Wilson)
- Ranks seventh in the ACC in completion percentage (.641).
- True freshman who has started eight games this season - he got called into action earlier than expected with injuries to Grayson McCall.
- Boasts a .641 completion percentage this season - that ranks eighth and is the best for a freshman in school history.
- Rushed for three touchdowns vs. Georgia Tech - that was the most rushing TDs for a Pack QB since Russell Wilson in 2010 (vs. FSU).
- Went 18-20 vs. Stanford, throwing for a season-high three TDs. That .900 completion percentage is the fifth-best in the FBS this season.
- Boasts a 140.8 efficiency mark for the season - the No. 8 mark in school history and best ever by a freshman.
- Just the third true freshman (Philip Rivers in 2000, MJ Morris in 2022) to start a game for the Pack since the turn of the century - his first start came at Clemson.
- Threw for 329 yards vs. Syracuse, most for a Wolfpack true freshman since Rivers in 2000.

- Named ACC Rookie of the Week for his performance in the win at Cal. Posted 306 passing yards (second straight 300+ yard game) and led the Wolfpack back from a 13-point fourth quarter deficit (despite being sacked six times).
- 75-yard touchdown pass to Noah Rogers vs Syracuse was the longest for a Pack QB since 2022 (Devin Leary, 75).
- Also had a 72-yard completion vs. The Orange - first Pack player to complete two passes of 70+ yards in at least 30 years.
- Came off the bench for an injured Grayson McCall vs. Wake Forest and threw for 272 yards and two TDs.
- Came off the bench late in the first half vs. LaTech to lead the Wolfpack to a win. Was 12-17 for 119 yards in the second half, leading the Pack to three scoring drives. One was a 76 yard, 8:11 drive that ended in a Kendrick Raphael TD. (NC State trailed 6-17 at the half).
- Scored the final TD himself in the 30-20 win, taking it in from the one for the score.
